

Event at St. Petri Hotel

Copenhagen Cocktail

“A Copenhagen please.” That’s how it could sound next time you order a cocktail. Copenhagen is becoming more and more hip and that is why Wonderful Copenhagen took the initiative to select Copenhagen’s very own cocktail, in line with other major big cities.

Therefore five of the city’s most prominent bartenders competed about how a real “Copenhagen” should look like.

Once they had mixed their cocktails on the stage, a panel of experts judged on taste and experience.

The audience got a cocktail each and they could give points from 1 to 5 using Teletech’s voting system. Everything could also be followed on the big screen.

In addition, Teletech also delivered sound system and big screen production operated by our technicians.

The winner of the competition was Gromit Eduardsen from the cocktail bar 1105.

The event was organized in collaboration with Cherry Heering.
